

Welcome to this late(st) edition of the newsletter. As usual, events beyond my control delay getting it printed so although it is called Winter 97/98 it is actually reaching you in Spring (in the northern hemisphere at least, apologies to those of you in Australia).

My sincere condolences to Betty Albright from Albuquerque whose husband Bill died last November.

Glenda Minney of Underbool, Victoria writes that her son Ross wed Sharon Forber in February 97. Margaret Goodwin from Biggleswade mentions that her husband Ralph works with a Tony Minney, unfortunately not interested in family history.

I saw Tony Minney's name in the credits again as 'Dressing Props' in the BBC1 comedy drama 'Sex & Chocolate' starring Dawn French. It was broadcast on 26/10/97.

In Brighton last year I met a Lucy Mienie. She stated she was South African but her husband originated from Rhodesia (now Zimbabwe). He believed his ancestry was French Huguenot..

Most of this issue is taken up with the 1881 census extracts (all 434 of them) from the counties of England and Wales. What is noticeable is (I suspect) a high transcription error rate. There are too many missing entries and some that should not be transcribed as Minney. I will check the more obvious problem entries at a later date. Some of you will be aware of a number of Minneys in Glamorgan. I always assumed they originated from Hereford. Not so, the index clearly shows they came from Ireland. I wrote to some of the Welsh Minneys hoping to find out more but alas there was no response.

Rosemary Minney has tracked down a copy of 'This Green & Pleasant Land', the history of Yardley Hastings by E C Revitt. It was reprinted in 1993. I will be quoting from this fascinating book in future newsletters.

At work I have just obtained a CD-ROM entitled UK INFO. It contains 42 million phone/address entries for England and Wales. This version has a couple of bugs and cannot export or print lists. Once the upgrade is available I will be able to find all the Minney entries. Interestingly there were only nine for Minnell.

I must mention the Australian subscription system. It is important that you send your cheque to Diane Harriman at the year end otherwise Diane has to chase everyone up. One or two of you are still using her old address. Her new address is 10 Headland Road, North Curl Curl, NSW 2099.

And Spence - many thanks for your continuing generosity.

Best wishes to you all for the New Year

Barrie Minney

Minney Newsletter is published twice a year. Subscription due January - £3.00 UK, £5.50 Overseas.

Welcome to Norma Bryant of 52 Marina Road, Mentone, Victoria 3194.

Norma is the daughter of Olive Minney who was born in Sydney in 1901 to Ernest and Haidee Minney. Her grandfather and Pam Garner's were brothers so they are second cousins.

24th January 1947

Mr R J Minney, producer of the British film The Wicked Lady announced in Liverpool last night that he had resigned from the Arthur Rank organization.

4th July 1947

Letter to the Editor of The Times British Films

A long letter attempting to promote the British film industry against the growth of American imports. Stated that currently, films were taking as long as 13 weeks to complete.

R J Minney, Lawford House, Manningtree, Essex.

15th July 1947

Letter to the Editor of The Times

A reply to a Lord Grantley who challenged some of R Minney's figures....."A Place of Ones Own, based on Sir Osbert Sitwell's story, for which the sets were designed by Rex Whistler, occupied the studio floor for a bare six weeks....."

R J Minney, Lawford House, Manningtree, Essex.

13th November 1947

Letter to the Editor of The Times British Films

Another long letter detailing his views on why the British Film industry is languishing behind the French and Italians.

R J Minney, Lawford House, Manningtree, Essex.

1st April 1948

Press Commission Evidence

Minutes on evidence given before the Royal Commission on the Press on November 27, 1947, by Mr R J Minney and Mr Kingsley Martin (Editor, The New Statesmen and Nation) have now been published (Cmd. 7369 Stationary Office 1s.)

17th July 1948

To The Editor of The Times

The Film Quota

Sir - What has apparently been overlooked by Mr Allport, European manager of the Motion Picture Association of America, and by others in the recent correspondence in your columns, is that all films made here by American companies (and they have already begun production) will automatically come into the 45 per cent quota.

R J Minney, Lawford House, Manningtree, Essex.

6th September 1951

I was unable to locate the newspaper entry but the index states;

R J Minney;- "Nothing To Lose" is to be filmed.

12th July 1951

Lord Holden - A Vivid Personality

Mr R J Minney writes: -

Lord Holden was a far greater and more vivid personality in the circle of his friends than to the public, who only knew of him. We are all greatly impoverished by his sudden death. He was a figure out of the past, not an eccentric, though he admired eccentrics, but an elegant blend of the late Victorian and the Edwardian. His manners were as finely polished as his mind. He had a sound knowledge of the literature, history, architecture, furniture and clothes of his own country, of France, Germany and Italy, but his scholarly mind and admirable taste never made him pedantic. He was amusing, impishly witty, a perfect host and guest. He gave his time unsparingly to help the under-privileged and distressed in Britain and elsewhere, and there was nothing he was not prepared to undertake to serve a friend.

Army Records

Sarah Minney has collected the following references at the P.R.O. Kew;

MINNEY Samuel

Born: Hamstead, Northamptonshire. Enlisted: 1803. Discharged: 1827 aged 46 years. 30th Regt. Foot

Source WO97/490.

According to the Minney index a likely Samuel was baptised in Flamstead, Herts, the son of William and Ann. The baptism took place on 2nd September 1781. I cannot find a 'Hamstead' in my atlas.

MINNEY William

Born: Hereford. Enlisted: 1799. Discharged: 1816 aged 38 years. 35 Regt Foot

Source: WO97/526

The nearest William that I can find in the index was baptised at Hereford St Peter on 16th January 1774, son of Anne.

MINNEY Samuel¹

Born: Clifton, Berks (Bucks?). Enlisted: 1808. Discharged: 1834 aged 46 years. Buckingham Militia

Source: WO97/1104

No corresponding birth entry in the index. Information from Joan Robinson that Samuel became a Chelsea Pensioner and died in 1843.

1881 Census Result for England & Wales

I have at long last recorded all the Minney entries from this index. I have also checked for variant spellings. The one spelling that I have not checked completely is 'Menney' of which I am sure there are a few in the index.

The Guild of One Name Studies is carrying out a survey on these extracts by one-namers but to be able to submit a county by county return for Minney I will need to check the Scottish entries. My local family history society (Sussex) did not order the Scottish returns. I am told that these are available from any Mormon family history centres. Any volunteers to check the Scottish counties would be gratefully received.

Due to reasons of space I have not included all the details that I have extracted from each entry.

Mary Minney	26		born Olney, Bucks
Maud M. Minney		4 mths	born Wollaston

Susan Minnie of Bushey, Herts

In the 1881 index for Bushey, Herts, Susan Minnie age 6 appears as a visitor. Dorothy Hone has checked the original census entry for this household and has sent the following;

Frogon or Frogmore Cottages, Bushey

Thomas Adams	46	Ag lab	born Wing, Bucks
Susan Adams	44		born Weedon, Bucks
Helen Grace Adams	16	Nursemaid	born Watford
Fanny Adams	12	Scholar	born Bushey
Alice Eliza Adams	2		born Bushey
Susan Minnie, visitor	6	Scholar	born Bushey

"There was nothing else for Minney in the return and on checking the parish registers I couldn't find any entries for Minney at all; Baptisms 1867-1885, Burials 1870-1894, Marriages 1870-1877."

"I just wonder, in view of Helen Adams' occupation, whether Susan was being fostered by the Adams family and not knowing her birthplace simply put Bushey. Sorry not to be able to throw more light on this one."
